Skills Exchange Symposium

Promoting Recovery work through exchange of knowledge, skills and the experiences of workers, consumers and family members

Wednesday, June 13, 12:00 noon to
 Friday, June 15, 12:00 noon, 2007
 Trent University,
 Peterborough, Ontario

This symposium is an exciting opportunity for people who work in the field of early intervention for psychosis, consumers, and families to promote recovery by sharing our expertise and developing new knowledge and skills.

Join us for engaging workshops that take a broad approach to recovery. We will be facilitating discussion, art, and interaction designed to extend our knowledge about psychosis. Together we will expand our vision of the future for early psychosis intervention.
